Corporate Tax and Treasury

Introduction

The Curzon Partnership has a long-standing reputation as the UK's leading recruiter of senior tax and corporate treasury professionals.

Simon Coxon and David Timson (a former ACT Council member) each have over 15 years' recruitment experience in both disciplines and have successfully completed more than 100 searches for Directors of Tax, Treasurers and their Deputies, on behalf of over 25 FTSE 100 groups.

Simon Coxon leads this specialist area.

The Team

Simon Coxon joined Curzon in 1997, has been a Partner since 2002 and he is currently the firm's Managing Partner.

After an early career with KPMG as an auditor, he became a recruiter in 1993, since when he has specialised in senior financial recruitment with a particular focus on tax and treasury. He has successfully handled well over fifty tax and treasury searches for FTSE 100 and FTSE 250 groups, multi-nationals, privately owned businesses and advisory firms.

David Timson, a former Council member of the ACT, held several senior positions during his own career in treasury and corporate finance with British Gas, GKN and GPT.

For the past 20 years he has run executive search businesses with treasury as a core specialisation. He is now the Senior Partner of Curzon.

Our expertise

The Tax and Treasury Practice recruits senior treasury professionals for UK corporates and multi-national corporations. We are the UK's leading recruiter of Directors of Tax and of Group Treasurers, and their Deputies, having completed more than 100 searches for clients that include over 25 of the FTSE 100.

Recognised by the ACT, of which David Timson is a former Council member, the Partners at Curzon work personally on every aspect of a search, bringing many years' experience and expert knowledge to bear. Our record of completing assignments is second to none.

We work closely with clients at the outset to define the brief; advising on team structure, writing the job specification and providing up-to-date salary information.

We treat each assignment as a blank canvas using all suitable methodologies to identify as many potential candidates as possible. Our specialist knowledge allows us to assess candidates in-depth. We help design the client's selection process and broker an offer on their behalf.
